

Pronoun vs Conjunction

vocabeng.com

Pronoun Sentences

- She called me yesterday.
- They joined our class today.
- He forgot his wallet outside.
- We enjoyed the rainy evening.
- I cleaned my study table.
- You solved the hard puzzle.
- It looks fresh today.
- Someone knocked at midnight.
- Nobody answered the loud bell.
- Everybody liked the new cafe.
- Mine looks better today.
- Hers was near the window.
- Ours needs fresh paint.
- His stayed inside the drawer.
- Theirs arrived before lunch.
- Anyone may join tonight.
- Few attended the meeting.
- Many supported the new plan.

Conjunction Sentences

- Tea and coffee are ready.
- Wait here until sunset comes.
- Smile because life feels beautiful.
- Sit quietly while babies sleep.
- Leave now or miss dinner.
- Birds sang before rain arrived.
- Wash hands after playing outside.
- Rest now because work ended.
- Bring juice and cold water.
- Stay calm although traffic increased.
- Laugh loudly when friends arrive.
- Finish homework before bedtime starts.
- Open curtains so sunlight enters.
- Study harder or fail exams.
- Wear shoes because floor feels cold.
- Speak softly while mother rests.
- Call me after classes finish.
- Save money and avoid waste.

Pronoun VS Conjunction

🔍 vocabeng.com

Pronoun Sentences

- Her smile looked charming.
- Them invited us yesterday.
- Me helped the little child.
- Us enjoyed the music show.
- Him surprised everyone today.
- This belongs to Sarah.
- That sounded really strange.
- These appear very expensive.
- Those matched my outfit perfectly.
- Whom did you invite?
- Whose jacket stayed outside?
- Who answered your question?
- What changed your opinion suddenly?
- Which seems more attractive?
- Anything can happen today.
- Everything felt peaceful there.
- Nothing disturbed my sleep.
- Anybody may borrow this pen.

Conjunction Sentences

- Drive carefully because roads seem wet.
- Eat fruits and stay healthy.
- Wake early before sunrise appears.
- Keep walking until rain stops.
- Bring snacks or stay hungry.
- Sit inside while winds blow.
- Study daily because exams approach.
- Smile kindly although mood feels low.
- Close windows before dust enters.
- Dance happily when songs begin.
- Work harder and achieve success.
- Call later because father sleeps.
- Run fast or miss practice.
- Stay silent while teacher explains.
- Drink water after exercise ends.
- Leave quickly before market closes.
- Read books and gain wisdom.
- Listen carefully because details matter.

Pronoun vs Conjunction

🔍 vocabeng.com

Pronoun Sentences

- One forgot the meeting time.
- Another asked funny questions.
- Others preferred cold drinks.
- Several joined the morning walk.
- Anyone noticed the strange sound.
- Everybody enjoyed the family dinner.
- Few remembered my birthday.
- Some visited the new library.
- Most appreciated the free gifts.
- Neither looked completely satisfied.
- Either may answer correctly.
- Many attended the wedding ceremony.
- Nobody trusted the false rumor.
- Everything seemed perfectly organized.
- Whoever arrives first may enter.
- Whichever fits best works fine.
- Somebody dropped these papers.
- Anyone can solve this easily.

Conjunction Sentences

- Speak clearly so everyone understands.
- Hurry now or train departs.
- Sleep early because tomorrow feels busy.
- Wait outside while doctor checks reports.
- Bring notebooks and sharpen pencils.
- Stay patient although lines appear long.
- Finish chores before guests arrive.
- Laugh together when jokes sound funny.
- Drive slowly because streets remain crowded.
- Wash dishes after dinner ends.
- Save energy and switch lights off.
- Sit nearby while children play.
- Rest awhile because journey felt tiring.
- Open doors before visitors arrive.
- Stay awake until movie finishes.
- Keep smiling although problems continue.
- Eat quickly or food gets cold.
- Write neatly because teachers notice handwriting.

Pronoun VS Conjunction

🔍 vocabeng.com

Pronoun Sentences

- He opened the heavy gate.
- She painted beautiful flowers yesterday.
- They planned a surprise party.
- We watched the evening stars.
- You carried all those bags.
- I answered every difficult question.
- It sounded extremely noisy outside.
- Someone left keys near entrance.
- Nobody liked the bitter soup.
- Everybody welcomed the new teacher.
- Mine stayed under the chair.
- Yours appeared cleaner than mine.
- Hers looked brighter this morning.
- His remained inside the cupboard.
- Theirs arrived during lunch break.
- Many loved the fresh weather.
- Each wore colorful clothes yesterday.
- Few understood the hidden message.

Conjunction Sentences

- Speak politely because elders appreciate manners.
- Finish breakfast before school starts.
- Stay home until fever disappears.
- Read daily and improve vocabulary.
- Smile warmly although weather feels gloomy.
- Call me when dinner finishes.
- Bring medicine or visit clinic.
- Walk carefully while roads remain slippery.
- Drink milk because bones need strength.
- Sit quietly before principal arrives.
- Rest today and continue tomorrow.
- Keep trying because success needs patience.
- Open books after attendance finishes.
- Laugh freely although stress feels heavy.
- Stay indoors until storm passes.
- Carry water and avoid dehydration.
- Leave now before traffic increases.
- Practice daily because skills improve slowly.

Pronoun VS Conjunction

🔍 vocabeng.com

Pronoun Sentences

- This feels soft and warm.
- That tasted surprisingly sweet today.
- These belong near the shelf.
- Those looked fresh yesterday evening.
- Who called during lunchtime today?
- Whom did they choose yesterday?
- Whose shoes stayed near stairs?
- Which appears more colorful now?
- What made everyone so happy?
- Anything may improve your mood.
- Everything looked neat inside.
- Nothing changed after discussion ended.
- Anybody can join our group.
- Something moved behind the curtain.
- Neither wanted extra juice today.
- Either sounds perfect for dinner.
- Several enjoyed the comedy show.
- Few noticed the hidden mistake.

Conjunction Sentences

- Wake up before alarm rings.
- Stay focused because goals matter.
- Speak slowly so children understand.
- Bring tea and some biscuits.
- Walk faster or miss class.
- Rest quietly while rain continues.
- Save files before laptop shuts down.
- Laugh often because happiness spreads quickly.
- Close doors although weather feels pleasant.
- Wash clothes after workout finishes.
- Arrive early and avoid delays.
- Stay cheerful because hard times pass.
- Write carefully before submitting forms.
- Listen closely while instructions continue.
- Keep reading although chapter seems lengthy.
- Wear gloves because air feels cold.
- Call later until meeting finishes.
- Eat healthy and stay active.