

Verb vs Linking Verb

vocabeng.com

Verb Sentences

- Birds fly above trees.
- Children play after school.
- Drivers stop near markets.
- Farmers grow fresh wheat.
- Students write neat notes.
- Women cook tasty meals.
- Men build strong houses.
- Babies drink warm milk.
- Teachers check daily homework.
- Friends share funny jokes.
- Players kick heavy balls.
- Workers carry large boxes.
- Families watch evening dramas.
- Shopkeepers sell fresh fruits.
- Nurses help sick patients.
- Artists draw lovely sketches.
- Guests enjoy sweet desserts.
- Bakers prepare soft bread.

Linking Verb Sentences

- Juice is very cold.
- Coffee smells so fresh.
- Her dress looks elegant.
- Their baby seems sleepy.
- My jacket feels warm.
- The room became silent.
- Your idea sounds perfect.
- The garden looks colorful.
- His voice sounds strange.
- The weather feels pleasant.
- Her soup tastes delicious.
- The floor feels slippery.
- My brother became angry.
- Their plan seems risky.
- Your coffee smells amazing.
- The lake looks peaceful.
- Her hands feel freezing.
- The baby is cheerful.

Verb vs Linking Verb

🔍 vocabeng.com

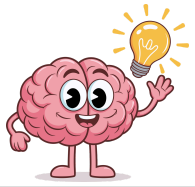

Verb Sentences

- Monkeys climb tall trees.
- Boys wash dirty bicycles.
- Girls sing beautiful songs.
- Cooks serve hot noodles.
- Parents guide young children.
- Cats chase tiny mice.
- Fishermen catch fresh fish.
- Pilots fly huge airplanes.
- Students solve hard questions.
- Dogs guard small houses.
- Sisters clean messy rooms.
- Brothers repair old bikes.
- Chefs prepare spicy burgers.
- Tourists explore ancient streets.
- Mothers pack school lunches.
- Athletes practice every morning.
- Painters decorate empty walls.
- Kids collect colorful stickers.

Linking Verb Sentences

- The cake tastes wonderful.
- His answer seems correct.
- The street looks empty.
- My pillow feels soft.
- Her smile is lovely.
- Their garden looks amazing.
- Your tea smells sweet.
- The night became colder.
- His face looks tired.
- The soup tastes spicy.
- Their clothes seem expensive.
- This water feels icy.
- The classroom is peaceful.
- Your jacket looks stylish.
- The fruit smells fresh.
- My fingers feel numb.
- Her story sounds funny.
- The pillow became dirty.

Verb vs Linking Verb

🔍 vocabeng.com

Verb Sentences

- Teachers explain difficult lessons.
- Bakers bake chocolate cookies.
- Friends visit nearby parks.
- Women wash colorful clothes.
- Men paint wooden fences.
- Children jump across puddles.
- Students carry heavy backpacks.
- Workers repair broken roads.
- Players throw tennis balls.
- Families enjoy weekend picnics.
- Nurses check patient reports.
- Drivers park beside buildings.
- Gardeners trim dry branches.
- Visitors admire ancient monuments.
- Shopkeepers arrange fresh vegetables.
- Farmers feed hungry animals.
- Kids open colorful presents.
- Artists create modern paintings.

Linking Verb Sentences

- The bread smells wonderful.
- Your shoes look expensive.
- Their child is energetic.
- The soup became colder.
- Her voice sounds gentle.
- This blanket feels cozy.
- The hall looks crowded.
- Your sandwich tastes delicious.
- The sky became darker.
- My coffee smells strong.
- Their puppy seems playful.
- The weather is humid.
- Her hands feel cold.
- The room looks brighter.
- Your idea sounds smart.
- The milk tastes sour.
- His jacket became wet.
- The perfume smells lovely.

Verb Linking Verb

 vocabeng.com

Verb Sentences

- Rabbits eat fresh carrots.
- Students read short stories.
- Boys throw plastic bottles.
- Girls decorate birthday cakes.
- Parents buy useful books.
- Babies crawl across carpets.
- Neighbors plant colorful flowers.
- Drivers clean dusty mirrors.
- Athletes lift heavy weights.
- Friends exchange funny messages.
- Cooks mix spicy sauces.
- Teachers organize classroom activities.
- Tourists ride crowded buses.
- Farmers harvest ripe corn.
- Workers install bright lights.
- Sisters fold clean clothes.
- Brothers wash muddy shoes.
- Guests taste homemade desserts.

Linking Verb Sentences

- The coffee is bitter.
- Her bag looks expensive.
- The soup smells tasty.
- My shoes feel tight.
- The classroom became quiet.
- Your idea sounds interesting.
- Their garden looks lovely.
- The blanket feels fluffy.
- The juice tastes sweet.
- Her voice sounds cheerful.
- The weather became warmer.
- His room looks untidy.
- The cake smells delicious.
- Your pillow feels comfortable.
- Their son seems nervous.
- The soup is salty.
- Her necklace looks shiny.
- The room became brighter.

Verb VS Linking Verb

🔍 vocabeng.com

Verb Sentences

- Dogs follow their owners.
- Girls carry colorful umbrellas.
- Boys climb rocky hills.
- Teachers praise hardworking students.
- Bakers sell creamy pastries.
- Families visit crowded malls.
- Children draw funny cartoons.
- Players practice football tricks.
- Women prepare fresh salads.
- Men wash shiny cars.
- Friends watch comedy movies.
- Nurses assist elderly patients.
- Shopkeepers display colorful toys.
- Travelers explore mountain villages.
- Artists paint beautiful portraits.
- Gardeners remove dry leaves.
- Visitors enter crowded museums.
- Students memorize difficult definitions.

Linking Verb Sentences

- The milk smells strange.
- Your phone looks modern.
- The soup tastes amazing.
- My jacket feels soft.
- Her mood became cheerful.
- The weather is pleasant.
- His story sounds unbelievable.
- The room looks spacious.
- Your tea smells refreshing.
- Their child seems confident.
- My hands feel sticky.
- The bread became hard.
- Her scarf looks elegant.
- The soup tastes bland.
- This chair feels stable.
- The classroom is clean.
- Your perfume smells pleasant.
- His expression looks serious.