

Direct Speech

&

Indirect Speech

• "I need water," said Ali.	• Ali said that he needed water.
• "We are ready," said Sara.	• Sara said that they were ready.
• "She likes tea," said Umar.	• Umar said that she liked tea.
• "They play cricket," said Hina.	• Hina said that they played cricket.
• "You look happy," said Bilal.	• Bilal said that I looked happy.
• "I lost keys," said Ahmed.	• Ahmed said that he had lost keys.
• "We need rest," said Zoya.	• Zoya said that they needed rest.
• "He works hard," said Sana.	• Sana said that he worked hard.
• "They need help," said Danish.	• Danish said that they needed help.
• "I feel cold," said Ayesha.	• Ayesha said that she felt cold.
• "We enjoy music," said Hamza.	• Hamza said that they enjoyed music.
• "She cooks well," said Nida.	• Nida said that she cooked well.
• "You seem busy," said Asad.	• Asad said that I seemed busy.
• "I know him," said Fahad.	• Fahad said that he knew him.
• "They arrived early," said Noor.	• Noor said that they had arrived early.
• "We love books," said Jawad.	• Jawad said that they loved books.
• "She needs money," said Komal.	• Komal said that she needed money.
• "I found coins," said Imran.	• Imran said that he had found coins.

Direct Speech

Indirect Speech

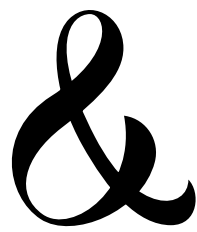

• "I finished work," said Raza.	• Raza said that he had finished work.
• "We missed class," said Maha.	• Maha said that they had missed class.
• "She bought fruit," said Usman.	• Usman said that she had bought fruit.
• "You need sleep," said Maryam.	• Maryam said that I needed sleep.
• "I forgot notes," said Taha.	• Taha said that he had forgotten notes.
• "They cleaned rooms," said Eman.	• Eman said that they had cleaned rooms.
• "We found seats," said Zohaib.	• Zohaib said that they had found seats.
• "He passed exams," said Rabia.	• Rabia said that he had passed exams.
• "I need support," said Hassan.	• Hassan said that he needed support.
• "They fixed bikes," said Iqra.	• Iqra said that they had fixed bikes.
• "We visited parks," said Saad.	• Saad said that they had visited parks.
• "She opened windows," said Farhan.	• Farhan said that she had opened windows.
• "You look worried," said Alina.	• Alina said that I looked worried.
• "I packed bags," said Adnan.	• Adnan said that he had packed bags.
• "They painted walls," said Bushra.	• Bushra said that they had painted walls.
• "We planted trees," said Sameer.	• Sameer said that they had planted trees.
• "She called mother," said Haris.	• Haris said that she had called mother.
• "I washed clothes," said Neha.	• Neha said that she had washed clothes.

Direct Speech

Indirect Speech

• "I feel better," said Talha.	• Talha said that he felt better.
• "We reached safely," said Kinza.	• Kinza said that they had reached safely.
• "She needs medicine," said Zain.	• Zain said that she needed medicine.
• "You seem upset," said Hoor.	• Hoor said that I seemed upset.
• "I brought snacks," said Rehan.	• Rehan said that he had brought snacks.
• "They sold tickets," said Maham.	• Maham said that they had sold tickets.
• "We ordered food," said Shahzaib.	• Shahzaib said that they had ordered food.
• "He bought shoes," said Nimra.	• Nimra said that he had bought shoes.
• "I need money," said Salman.	• Salman said that he needed money.
• "They finished homework," said Anum.	• Anum said that they had finished homework.
• "We caught buses," said Waleed.	• Waleed said that they had caught buses.
• "She visited cousins," said Aiman.	• Aiman said that she had visited cousins.
• "You need patience," said Hadiya.	• Hadiya said that I needed patience.
• "I lost balance," said Faizan.	• Faizan said that he had lost balance.
• "They baked cakes," said Aqsa.	• Aqsa said that they had baked cakes.
• "We joined meetings," said Shahmeer.	• Shahmeer said that they had joined meetings.
• "She mailed letters," said Adeel.	• Adeel said that she had mailed letters.
• "I checked emails," said Muneeb.	• Muneeb said that he had checked emails.

Direct Speech

& Indirect Speech

• "I need coffee," said Zubair.	• Zubair said that he needed coffee.
• "We cleaned rooms," said Kiran.	• Kiran said that they had cleaned rooms.
• "She likes music," said Affan.	• Affan said that she liked music.
• "You seem calm," said Sehrish.	• Sehrish said that I seemed calm.
• "I bought fruits," said Hamid.	• Hamid said that he had bought fruits.
• "They fixed lights," said Minal.	• Minal said that they had fixed lights.
• "We painted rooms," said Qasim.	• Qasim said that they had painted rooms.
• "He needs practice," said Rimsha.	• Rimsha said that he needed practice.
• "I found coins," said Waqar.	• Waqar said that he had found coins.
• "They washed cars," said Anaya.	• Anaya said that they had washed cars.
• "We visited farms," said Javeria.	• Javeria said that they had visited farms.
• "She packed clothes," said Salman.	• Salman said that she had packed clothes.
• "You need courage," said Huma.	• Huma said that I needed courage.
• "I mailed forms," said Danish.	• Danish said that he had mailed forms.
• "They planted roses," said Beenish.	• Beenish said that they had planted roses.
• "We repaired chairs," said Irfan.	• Irfan said that they had repaired chairs.
• "She baked cookies," said Mahnoor.	• Mahnoor said that she had baked cookies.
• "I opened windows," said Sohail.	• Sohail said that he had opened windows.

Direct Speech

Indirect Speech

• "I need bread," said Arham.	• Arham said that he needed bread.
• "We shared lunch," said Mehak.	• Mehak said that they had shared lunch.
• "She loves reading," said Yasir.	• Yasir said that she loved reading.
• "You look cheerful," said Noorain.	• Noorain said that I looked cheerful.
• "I packed gifts," said Bilawal.	• Bilawal said that he had packed gifts.
• "They visited museums," said Hafsa.	• Hafsa said that they had visited museums.
• "We bought tickets," said Rizwan.	• Rizwan said that they had bought tickets.
• "She washed dishes," said Fariha.	• Fariha said that she had washed dishes.
• "I checked messages," said Naveed.	• Naveed said that he had checked messages.
• "They opened shops," said Momina.	• Momina said that they had opened shops.
• "We enjoyed travel," said Shayan.	• Shayan said that they had enjoyed travel.
• "He likes sports," said Aleena.	• Aleena said that he liked sports.
• "I need water," said Kashif.	• Kashif said that he needed water.
• "They booked rooms," said Sidra.	• Sidra said that they had booked rooms.
• "We visited markets," said Basit.	• Basit said that they had visited markets.
• "She likes flowers," said Huzaifa.	• Huzaifa said that she liked flowers.
• "You seem tired," said Romaisa.	• Romaisa said that I seemed tired.
• "I bought bread," said Taimoor.	• Taimoor said that he had bought bread.

