

Future Perfect

Future Perfect Continuous

• I will have finished.	• I will have been waiting.
• She will have arrived.	• They will have been studying.
• We will have packed.	• He will have been driving.
• They will have completed.	• She will have been singing.
• You will have learned.	• We will have been cooking.
• Birds will have returned.	• It will have been raining.
• Someone will have called.	• I will have been reading.
• My brother will have graduated.	• They will have been laughing.
• Our team will have won.	• She will have been practicing.
• Children will have slept.	• He will have been working.
• Guests will have departed.	• We will have been walking.
• Dad will have repaired.	• You will have been helping.
• Mom will have prepared.	• Birds will have been chirping.
• Friends will have shared.	• My sister will have been painting.
• Everyone will have gathered.	• Workers will have been building.
• Nobody will have complained.	• Students will have been revising.
• The bus will have stopped.	• Cats will have been chasing.
• Rain will have ended.	• Wind will have been blowing.

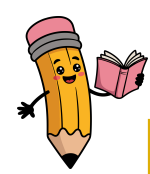

Future Perfect

Future Perfect Continuous

• We will have forgotten.	• I will have been washing.
• She will have baked.	• They will have been watching.
• He will have caught.	• She will have been cleaning.
• I will have closed.	• We will have been discussing.
• They will have crossed.	• He will have been fixing.
• Everyone will have smiled.	• You will have been exercising.
• Guests will have enjoyed.	• Children will have been playing.
• My uncle will have traveled.	• Rain will have been falling.
• Her phone will have rung.	• Friends will have been chatting.
• Our teacher will have explained.	• Mom will have been knitting.
• Somebody will have knocked.	• Dad will have been watering.
• We will have reached.	• Workers will have been repairing.
• You will have solved.	• My cousin will have been training.
• Nobody will have argued.	• Bees will have been collecting.
• The baby will have smiled.	• Cars will have been moving.
• My aunt will have visited.	• Snow will have been covering.
• Time will have passed.	• People will have been celebrating.
• Flowers will have bloomed.	• She will have been decorating.

Future Perfect

Future Perfect Continuous

• My dog will have escaped.	• We will have been saving.
• The shop will have opened.	• He will have been feeding.
• I will have written.	• She will have been organizing.
• They will have chosen.	• Children will have been drawing.
• We will have packed.	• Rain will have been cooling.
• She will have folded.	• I will have been waiting.
• He will have watered.	• They will have been visiting.
• Someone will have borrowed.	• We will have been enjoying.
• Our neighbors will have moved.	• She will have been serving.
• You will have finished.	• He will have been collecting.
• Birds will have built.	• Wind will have been shaking.
• The movie will have ended.	• I will have been practicing.
• Mom will have washed.	• Friends will have been sharing.
• Dad will have fueled.	• They will have been planting.
• Everyone will have dressed.	• We will have been improving.
• Nobody will have noticed.	• She will have been comforting.
• My sister will have smiled.	• He will have been answering.
• Our class will have gathered.	• People will have been waiting.

Future Perfect

Future Perfect Continuous

• We will have collected.	• She will have been writing.
• He will have opened.	• They will have been climbing.
• I will have painted.	• We will have been serving.
• Someone will have spilled.	• He will have been polishing.
• They will have rescued.	• Birds will have been searching.
• Our family will have celebrated.	• I will have been carrying.
• You will have checked.	• She will have been making.
• Mom will have ironed.	• They will have been repairing.
• Dad will have trimmed.	• We will have been visiting.
• Friends will have welcomed.	• Children will have been chasing.
• My cousin will have arrived.	• He will have been lifting.
• The bell will have rung.	• Rain will have been filling.
• Everyone will have remained.	• She will have been arranging.
• Nobody will have forgotten.	• I will have been polishing.
• The meeting will have started.	• They will have been exploring.
• My teacher will have smiled.	• We will have been planting.
• Our guests will have arrived.	• He will have been carrying.
• Time will have healed.	• She will have been answering.

Future Perfect

Future Perfect Continuous

• I will have booked.	• We will have been reading.
• She will have mailed.	• He will have been polishing.
• They will have borrowed.	• I will have been watering.
• Our coach will have encouraged.	• She will have been baking.
• Somebody will have dropped.	• They will have been delivering.
• We will have learned.	• Birds will have been flying.
• He will have accepted.	• My brother will have been jogging.
• Friends will have invited.	• Children will have been solving.
• My father will have laughed.	• She will have been folding.
• The sun will have risen.	• We will have been sharing.
• Rain will have stopped.	• He will have been guiding.
• Everyone will have finished.	• They will have been collecting.
• Nobody will have surrendered.	• I will have been sewing.
• The game will have ended.	• She will have been sweeping.
• My family will have gathered.	• We will have been protecting.
• Our guests will have smiled.	• He will have been carrying.
• Somebody will have forgotten.	• They will have been cleaning.
• The child will have waved.	• I will have been practicing.